Extension on sewer plan funds

Official written notification was received by Madison County officials Thursday that the $12.5 million state and federal grant for sanitary sewers in Nameoki, Chouteau and Venice townships will be held available for the project, if construction begins by March 1, 1978.

The notification came in a letter to the Madison County Board from Leo M. Eisel, director of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency in Springfield in which he said, "Please note that the supplemental grant offer (the sun extension) must be accepted by Feb. 28, 1977, and that construction work must be initiated by March 1, 1978."

"Congratulations on the receipt of this supplemental grant offer and we look forward to working with you throughout the construction of the project," Eisel concluded.

Walter "Dick" Sparks, chairman of the County Board's special sewer committee, which is planning the new sanitary sewers, said the official notification of the grant being extended nearly assures that the new sewers will be constructed after a lawsuit now pending is settled.

A group of residents opposing the use of taxes to repay bonds for the one-fourth local share of the construction costs have filed suit to block the sale of the bonds.

That suit was dismissed by a Circuit Court judge but M. Joseph Hill, attorney for the residents, has filed a notice of appeal of the Circuit Court decision with the Appellate Court at Mount Vernon.

Transcripts of the Circuit Court hearing and decision and other evidence in the case now is being prepared for the appeal. A hearing date on the appeal can not be set until all necessary documents are available.

SCENE OF TRAGEDY shortly after 8 a.m. today. Two occupants of the auto at left were overcome by exhaust fumes early today at 19th Street and Cleveland Blvd. Mrs. Donna Hall is slumped over dead in the front seat of the car; her auto is parked in the right foreground. Helping remove critically-ill Assistant Street Superintendent James Stack for transfer to the hospital are (left to right) Police Sgt. Leo Willis, an ambulance attendant, another aide and Patrolman Steve Willard.

Fumes kill woman; man is critical

Mrs. Donna Hall, 26, of 3209 Maryville Road, Apt. 5, was found without signs of life in the auto of Assistant Granite City Street Superintendent James Stack Jr., 28, of 2601 Washington Ave. Apt. D, at 8 a.m. today in the parking lot of the Travelodge Motel, 1200 Nineteenth St. Stack was found unconscious in the car and has been admitted to the intensive care unit of St. Elizabeth Hospital in critical condition. Authorities believe both were overcome by carbon monoxide fumes from the car's exhaust while they were talking in the auto.

She was a divorcee and he is separated from his wife.

Police were called at 7:30 by motel officials who said there were two persons in a car which had been there with the motor running since at least 4:30 a.m. today.

Officers found Stack still breathing and Mrs. Hall apparently dead. Stack was taken by ambulance to the hospital and Mrs. Hall was declared dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner Randall Irwin.

Police noted the exhaust system of Stack's auto appeared to be faulty.

Mrs. Hall was employed at the Top of the Barrel Restaurant, 19th Street and Delmar Avenue, and had

3 tie woman and take guns, coins

Three men wearing masks over their heads forced their way into the apartment of Mrs. Lydia Ables, 2410 W. 20th St., at 9 a.m. Sunday, bound her hands and feet, and took an antique gun and knife collection and a coin collection after ransacking the house.

The elderly victim said a man knocked on her apartment door and said, "I need to speak to Mrs. Ables." She unlocked the door and three men pushed their way in.

She said one pushed her onto the bed, bound her hands and feet with nylon stockings, and then tied a bathrobe over her mouth.

One youth watched her while the other two ransacked her bedroom and collected the guns and coins.

Mrs. Ables said she was praying aloud and the youth asked her to stop. "I'll tear your mouth open if you don't stop praying."

One also said he had been in the apartment before. Mrs. Ables' daughter was in another room during the incident and was not aware the robbery had taken place.

The three robbers left with a collector's set of knives, two double-barreled shotguns, an old cap and ball rifle, all antiques, and a coin collection.

Heavy fish kill

A major fish kill in Horseshoe Lake in an area of open water in the western arm of the lake apparently was due to pollution of the water by some type of chemical discharge, Charles Marbut, Greenville, district fisheries biologist of the Illinois Department of Conservation, said today.

William Nichols, a Horseshoe Lake landowner, said the kill was discovered last week and that the conservation department was notified.

Marbut said that he is computing counts made in the area of the kill, but as of today had not completed estimates of the number of fish killed.

He said that tests revealed there was ample oxygen in the affected area, indicating that the fish kill was not caused by natural means, such as the freezing weather during January.

Marbut said he will notify the district office of the Environmental Protection Agency at Collinsville which will be responsible for making tests of the water in the affected area. The biologist said that channel catfish far outnumbered the types of fish killed, with carp the second highest.

ROOMS RANSACKED

Several items were taken and rooms ransacked at the home of Lee Stevens, 2860 Iowa St., he reported at 5:30 p.m. Friday.

Entry was gained by forcing a basement door.

Stevens reported as missing a man's gold watch inscribed with American Steel and F.C. Conkling on its back and valued at $100, house keys and car keys, and a woman's wallet containing $7 cash, assorted change and assorted credit cards.

Weather outlook

Mostly sunny and warmer today, high about 50. Clear tonight with low in the mid-30s. Clear to partly cloudy Tuesday and mild. High in the low 60s. Scattered showers and mild Wednesday with highs in the 50s. Turning cooler Thursday and Friday with chance of showers Friday; highs in the 40s and low in the 20s.

Investigation of chemical burns

Granite City and Madison County officials are working with Granite City Steel officials in attempting to identify the source of chemicals leaking into a ponding area on the north end of Route 162 and east of 21st Street which were believed responsible for burning the legs of an 11-year-old boy last week.

All officials concerned are warning parents to keep their children away from the ponding area to avoid similar chemical burns.

Isaiah Forehand Jr. of 2009 E. 20th St., suffered chemical burns to both legs after he fell through ice over the pond last week and his boots filled with the water.

He walked about a block before his legs began burning and he removed the boots to find his legs red. The redness got worse until the youth's father took him to a family doctor three days after the contact with the water and the doctor diagnosed the problem as chemical burns.

The father described the burns as resembling "a real bad sunburn."

Granite City pollution officials were alerted Thursday of the problem and conducted preliminary tests at the pond. The tests indicated the presence in the water of a basic chemical, the opposite of acid.

Madison County pollution control officials were contacted

Friday and Ed Harris, administrative assistant of the environmental control department, and Cecil construction of the proposed overpass spanning the railroad tracks near downtown Granite City. These include approaches to FA Route 151 (The Great River Road) from 19th Street, Niedringhaus Avenue, 20th Street, or Missouri Avenue.

While no official determination of an approach route has yet been made, engineers and city officials agree that 19th Street is the most logical approach. Schuler said the route selection will depend upon the outcome of the site study by state highway engineers.

The city is seeking federal funding on the basis of 70 per cent of the construction cost, with the city to furnish the remaining 30 per cent as the local share. Schuler said the overpass construction presently is estimated at around $4 million.

Several sources of additional aid to finance the city's local share are being considered, the

School filing to start

Filing of nominating petitions by candidates who plan to seek Board of Education seats in the annual school elections in the Quad-City area and the Belleville Area College District will open Wednesday, Feb. 23.

The filing period will continue through March 18 in all four districts. School elections throughout the area will be held this year on Saturday, April 9.

School Board members are to be elected in Granite City District 9, Venice District 3, Madison District 12 and in the BAC district which includes all three Quad-City districts.

The college board election will be held in conjunction with the local area balloting, using the same precinct polling places as those in which Granite City, Venice and Madison district voters will cast ballots.

The BAC election will be on separate ballots, however.

Granite City School District 9 will elect three board members this year. Incumbents whose terms expire are George Moore, Donald Stucke and Harold Davis.

Other board members who are not subject to election this year are L. Monroe Worthen, Thomas Miossky, Steven Salitch and Norman Hall.

Since Davis is a "rural" member of the present seven-man board, voters must elect at least one rural board member in the April 9 balloting.

Among the incumbents remaining on the board, Hall is the only other rural member. Law requires that the Granite City board have at least two rural members, although it may have more.

Voters of the Belleville Area College board will elect two members of the board. Terms expiring this year are those of Curt E. Eckert of Belleville and Mrs. Martha L. Sauer of Belleville. Eckert presently is chairman of the board.

Other members of the BAC board are John Becker of Sparta, Robert H. Dienstmann of Belleville, Mearl J. Justus of Cahokia, Edward F. O'Malley of Belleville and Milton D. Smith of Belleville.

Madison School District 12 will elect three board members—two to regular three-year terms that expire this year, and a third member to fill a one-year unexpired term.

Regular terms expiring this year are those of Frank Eaves and Elvers Johnson. Also subject to election is the board seat now filled by Richard Zeisner, who was appointed to the unexpired term of Willie Walker last June. Walker

Renovating older homes

By VIRGINIA KNAUER

If you are thinking of buying a house, you may want to consider renovating an old building instead of buying a new one.

If you "fall in love" with an old house, be sensible. Determine whether it is suitable for renovation.

In considering a wood frame building, consider these questions:

1. Is the foundation good?

2. Is the house frame square and generally free from decay and insect damage?

3. Is the house arranged for good livability?

4. What might have to be done to bring it up to your standards?

While you may be able to assess the condition of a house by yourself, do not hesitate to seek professional advice.

The structure of a house is subject to a certain amount of settling, and small hairline cracks in foundations or walls are normal.

But open cracks and uneven settling may make renovation prohibitive.

Decay of wood is produced by moisture.

Carefully inspect the frame for decay. Especially note areas where wood is in contact with the soil or where wooden posts are encased in concrete. Floor joists are not supported on pedestals.

Sagging of wooden beams is usually not a structural problem—unless parts of the house have become noticeably distorted.

All exterior and interior surfaces—walls, siding, roof and trim—should be checked closely for excessive warping

City candidates air objectives

As the April elections near, candidates for public office are beginning to state the main objectives of their campaigns. Most candidates for Granite City aldermanic posts used the latest meeting of the Granite City Democratic Club to outline their main goals. About 150 persons attended the event at which each candidate was given a brief period to speak. The order in which the candidates spoke was the order in which their names will appear on the city ballot, starting in the First Ward.

Dallas Sr. used his time to praise Mayor Paul Schuler and the harmony which has existed between the present council and Schuler. Challenger Charles Douglas, a licensed attorney, said he felt, "It is time for fresh, new ideas." Main objectives were some place for youths to go, reduced crime, street improvements and a beautification project for Kirkpatrick Homes. Second Ward challenger, Fred Schuman Jr., assistant principal at Grigby Jr. High School, proposed sending a newsletter and questionnaire to every resident of the ward on a regular basis, seeking their opinions. He contended appointed department heads in the city, including in air pollution control, have failed to do everything they can. He emphasized he is financing his own campaign.

The incumbent Second Ward Alderman Frank Greenwald commented, "We have a pretty good city council. A council which is working well together, and so we have growth."

The third candidate in the Second Ward, Randall Hill, 25, an O'Fallon school teacher, pledged to cover the ward door-to-door each year and to be accessible to the residents. He also proposed a grandparent program to aid elderly persons and an "aldermen's corner" in the newspaper.

In the Third Ward, incumbent Alderman Roy Poulos said simply he wants to be re-elected, while his opponent, Walt Padgett, said he could meet the problems of the ward and the city "head-on."

Incumbent Fourth Ward Alderman Glen Sprankle said the last two years have shown more streets fixed, sidewalks improved and other progress in the city. He said he has returned every call left for him by a resident of his ward and has tried to help in every way he can.

Challenger Robert Strubberg stated, "I want to serve the people and I think the people need a servant."

Robert Wofford, another Fourth Ward challenger, said he is devoted to Granite City and feels each alderman should work toward the betterment of the whole city, not just of his ward.

The other candidate in the Fourth Ward, Foster Frederick was unable to attend.

Three of the six candidates in the Fifth Ward attended the meeting, including Lloyd H. Bailey who is one of two candidates seeking a four-year term. Bailey stated, "I would like to see change and I will do what the people want me to do — within my power."

His opponent for the open four-year term, incumbent Steve Basarich was absent.

Two of the four candidates seeking a two-year term were present, including the incumbent, Curtis Blevins, who is serving by appointment to the City Council. Blevins said he is proud to be serving on "a very progressive council" and would appreciate the opportunity to continue to serve.

Also seeking a two-year term in the Fifth Ward is Gary Barnstable, who said simply, "I have wanted to be an alderman all of my life."

Candidates for two-year terms in that ward who were not present were Mrs. Margaret Nann and Tommy Ray Taylor.

In the Sixth Ward race, the incumbent, Earl Baker, is pitted against Woodrow "Woody" Moad. Baker said he has tried not to let even one telephone call from those in his ward go unanswered and noted the council has made a great deal of progress recently, including the extension of Maryville Road, new street lights and other improvements.

Moad said the Sixth Ward needs an alderman who will propose better sewers, improve drainage around St. Clair Avenue and a cleanup project for the Nameoki Ditch. He said he thought the present aldermen had selected a poor route for Maryville Road improvements since it will pose a danger to children as it passes several schools.

All four candidates in the Seventh Ward were in attendance. The incumbent, Ronald Coleman, is seeking the city treasurer's post and is not running for re-election as an alderman.

Tom Boker, former alderman of that ward from 1969 to 1973, said, "This city is in need of people who can be fiscally responsible." He said he objects to increased assessments and an assessment multiplier which have raised his assessment 27 per cent. He also pledged continued assistance to residents of Dobrey Slough and improved drainage throughout the city.

George Gordon said he feels qualified to serve as Seventh Ward alderman and added, "I feel it is my patriotic duty to give the very best I have to offer."

Paul Bowler, a special education teacher at Granite City High School North said he has many ideas for continued growth in Granite City and said aldermen need to think more of the good of the whole city, rather than only his ward. "As the city grows, so does his ward and so the problems can be solved," he stated.

The final candidate for Seventh Ward alderman, Thomas Skubish, said improving the city will take the cooperation of labor, business, industry and government. "I want to do my best," he said.

Scoliosis screening planned

Proposed screening of fifth through ninth-grade pupils to detect scoliosis, abnormal curvature of the spine, was authorized by the Venice Board of Education at its meeting last week, providing the project involves no legal problems.

Mrs. Doris McFain, Venice school nurse, sought the board's permission to take part in the screening program, which also will be conducted in other school districts in Madison County.

School nurses and physical education instructors may be utilized in conducting the tests. Scoliosis should be detected and treated during the adolescent growth period to prevent serious health problems from developing later in life, when little can be done to correct the condition, it was asserted.

If scoliosis is detected in a child during the screening process, the parent will be advised to take the youngster to a private physician for treatment.

A date for the screening program to get under way has not yet been set, Mrs. McFain said. Preliminary approval from the board was sought to record the school district's interest in such a project.

In other business, Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers was delegated to check locations for the annual sports banquet, tentatively scheduled for the week of March 28 to April 1, and was given authority to file an application for $1,842 in Title IV funds.

Parental permission will be sought to allow the Gideon Society to distribute Bibles to students in the fifth through 12 grades.

Board Attorney Lawrence Hartman was asked to prepare a resolution authorizing the issuance of tax anticipation warrants in the amount of $60,000 from the building fund to meet the school district's payroll after March 4.

Dr. Alice Purdes' request to be relieved of choral duties at the end of the current term was referred to the board's personnel committee.

Charles Williams was hired as a bus driver at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, replacing Randy Stewart, who has resigned to return to military service.

Mrs. Ruth Voegelé read a letter to the board supporting teacher-coach Richard Essington and asking why a decision concerning his resignation as coach, received at the Feb. 2 meeting, was referred to the personnel committee.

The letter and a petition, accompanied by 233 signatures endorsing its contents, said

Essington has "done an excellent job for our schools" and urged the community and parents to give total support to a new basketball coach when named.

"We should take our business out of the locker room," the letter said. It urged non-interference by parents in coaches' efforts and voiced hope "we can all learn something from this."

Board President Jack Tolliver accepted the letter and petition.

Multiplier not needed, Cruse tells Optimists

An eight per cent assessment multiplier on property in Granite City Township is not needed, according to Von Dee Cruse, Granite City Township assessor.

Cruse spoke at the Thursday noon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club in the YMCA.

Cruse said Madison County is raising its valuation and that only three of the 24 townships, Wood River, Edwardsville and Granite City, have been selected for assessment multipliers.

William Monical, president of the club, announced that next Thursday's meeting will begin at noon instead of 12:15 p.m. as the annual Optimist speaker contest will be held.

Four students from each of the two high schools will compete, speaking for five minutes each.

The students selected for first-place honors will be presented a savings bond and will qualify for the District Optimist contest.

Members were reminded that the annual pancake brunch will be held Sunday, May 1, at the Nameoki Recreation Center, and that the date for the joint Rotary-Optimist Camelot auction will be Oct. 1.

GC January crimes show 34.5% decrease

Major crimes occurring in Granite City during January—a total of 159 in eight categories—declined by 34.5 per cent, below 233 crimes occurring in the same month last year, according to a report released Friday by Lt. Col. George Toller of the Police Department.

At the same time the report indicated that snow and ice-covered streets during the area's worst winter month in many years helped account for 246 traffic accidents, an increase of 76, or 44 per cent, over the 170 accidents occurring in January 1976.

The report listed 33 accidents involving 44 persons injured in January, up from 29 accidents resulting in 34 persons injured in January 1976.

The big jump in traffic statistics was in the total of 213 property damage accidents—up 72, or 51 per cent, over 170 such accidents in January 1976. There were no traffic fatalities last month.

There were no criminal homicides or forcible rape cases in the city last month, the report said, noting that there was none of these crimes in January 1976. The number of robberies last month fell to one from a total of five in January a year ago, while the number of burglaries dropped from 61 in January 1976 to 36 last month.

A total of 21 assault cases occurred last month, down from 24, while the number of auto burglaries fell from 74 a year ago to 39 last month.

Police investigated 69 larceny cases in January, down from 96, and 13 auto thefts, down from 23.

Police cleared 60 cases by arrests last month, down from 62, but during the same period cleared 60 other cases for a total of 120 cases cleared. This compares with 74 additional cases cleared in January 1976 for a total of 136 cases solved.

Police made 84 traffic arrests in January, down from 206 such arrests in January a year ago, and 97 other arrests, down from 136 in January 1976. This made a total of 181 arrests last month, compared to 341 in January 1976.

Investigation

Longview, supervisor of the Madison County Environmental Laboratory, took water samples in the pond, finding them to have a pH of 12.5. A pH of seven is neutral and a pH of 14 is the strongest base count possible. Granite City Steel officials were alerted and the area around the pond was inspected. The county authorities located an area at the northern edge of the pond where water appeared to be rushing into the pond from the ground. They noted their water samples were taken near that source.

Steel company officials were advised that efforts should be taken, such as guards, posted warnings and possibly a fence, to keep others from being burned in the water.

A spokesman for the steel company noted excavation is underway at the scene to determine the source of the chemicals in the pond. A guard has been posted at the pool to keep persons unaware of the danger from being hurt.

"All information available at this time indicates the chemicals are not from a Granite City Steel source," Granite City Steel has begun pumping water at the site. The area has been secured and local utilities are being checked to uncover additional information," the spokesman said.

It was reported unofficially the only known underground water line in that area carries river water from the Granite City Steel reservoir to the blast furnace division where it is used for cooling. No contamination has been found in that water when it reaches the blast furnace, a source said.

Renovating

and peeling — which are telltale signs of moisture.

If the house has not been unduly damaged by moisture, there are ways to control further deterioration.

For example, if you install insulation, be sure vapor barriers of coated or laminated paper, aluminum or plastic film are added to the warm side of the insulation to prevent moisture inside the house from passing through the walls and ceiling, condensing and wetting the insulation.

Plumbing, heating and wiring systems should also be examined to see if they are outdated or worn.

Rust or white or greenish crusts of pipes may be indicative of leaks.

And if wiring or cable insulation is brittle or cracked, it may have deteriorated from age or overloading and should be replaced.

Be certain to check local building codes before beginning any work on these systems.

If a house is not well arranged, it may not be worthwhile to spend the time or money for renovating.

Traffic patterns in the house should be planned to keep traffic through rooms to a minimum.

If at all possible, avoid traffic from one bedroom to another.

Finally, the cost of renovation should be considered. If the cost of buying and renovating a house is less than the fair market value, it is good investment.

The Agriculture Department has prepared a booklet entitled "Renovate an Old House" which gives further information. It is available for 35 cents from Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, Colo. 81009. (Stock number 06012.)

Charges filed after theft of gasoline

Randall Smith, 27, Cahokia, was charged with assault and theft after allegedly stealing two cans of gasoline from a Granite City Steel crew and then argued with some company guards on 21st Street just north of Edwardsville Road at 11:30 p.m. Sunday.

Smith was a passenger in a taxicab driven by Dave Tackett, 2133 Monroe St. Tackett said he picked Smith up at Madison Tavern where Smith's auto had run out of gasoline.

Tackett said Smith asked to be taken somewhere to get gasoline, but as they passed a Granite City Steel pumping operation along 21st Street, Smith moved some cans of gasoline near the road and ordered Tackett to stop, police were told.

When Tackett stopped the taxicab, Smith allegedly got out, took two five-gallon cans of gasoline and placed them in the rear seat of the taxi.

Steel company guards then stopped Smith and called Granite City Steel. When officers arrived, they alleged Smith threatened them and the company guards. Charges then were filed against Smith, who was taken to the Granite City Jail.

On this basis, Madison district voters will elect two regular board members and one to serve a one-year term.

In Venice District 3, voters will elect three board members to regular three-year terms and one member to an unexpired one-year term.

The other seat subject to election is that now held by Wilbert Glasper who was elected last year to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Charles Burger. One year of that term remains.

Other members of the Venice board are the Rev. Richard H. Bailey, Mrs. Jacqueline Leathman and John C. Boushara.

On the first filing date, Harold Davis, secretary of the Granite City School Board will be present at the board office, 20th and Adams streets, to accept nominating petitions filed between 8:30 and 9:30 a.m.

Thereafter petitions may be filed at the board office daily from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, until expiration of the filing period at 4 p.m. on March 18.

mayor said. He said the state maintains a special grade separation fund from which grants for such projects are made.

The state also has a "special projects" fund from which financial help might be obtained, and it also is a possibility that the city may obtain some help from the railroads, the mayor said.

The projects committee in its meeting last week also elected Mayor Lewis Krause of Collinsville as chairman to serve during the 1977 year.

Krause succeeds Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison who has been chairman of the committee since it first was organized two years ago.

Airport fund freeze has no effect on time table

An agreement by the U.S. Transportation Department to freeze funds until April 1 for land acquisition at Columbia Waterlock in Illinois for a new major area airport will not affect the time schedule for the new airport, Arven H. Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, said Friday.

He said a St. Louis newspaper article designating the action Thursday as a victory for those who want to keep the airport in Missouri was "a usual distortion," since, "when they gave us $100,000 last month, it was clearly understood there would be no more money until April 1, Saunders stated.

"DOT indicated to the judge (Federal District Judge Aubrey E. Robinson in Washington, D.C.) that it would take until April 1 to get the mechanics and paperwork of the grant completely worked out," he emphasized.

Before Judge Robinson Thursday, government lawyers representing the Transportation Department agreed to freezing funds until April 1, knowing such an agreement would not slow the Illinois Airport project.

Judge Robinson predicted the U.S. Court of Appeals will issue an injunction to halt any land acquisition while an appeal is being prepared. The appeal is expected to take one year.

Judge Robinson issued a temporary restraining order earlier this month which sustained former Secretary of Transportation William T. Coleman Jr.'s authority in approving the Illinois site for a new St. Louis area airport. That decision will be appealed, Missouri spokesmen have said.

Saunders noted, "Our lawyers reported the court hearing in Washington yesterday went well generally. Clearly the judge has not changed his mind and that means that his written order granting a summary judgment and, in effect, dismissing the Missouri suit, still stands," he concluded.

Two held in burglary

Granite City police are holding two youths, ages 16 and 21, for inventory, said Friday. The youths were arrested at 10:40 p.m. Friday at the home of Paul Zimmerman, 1633 Delmar Ave. Zimmerman's mother, Christine, who resides in an apartment over her son's home, said she heard noise downstairs and went to investigate.

She said a young man looked out the window at her, yelled to someone else in the home, "There's a lady out here," and two youths ran toward the rear of the apartment.

Mrs. Zimmerman telephoned her son at another number and he came home, finding his home had been ransacked. He then called police.

While officers were on the scene, two youths walked past the home and Zimmerman told police to stop them, since she recognized one as the youth who looked out the window at her.

Officers placed the two in a squad car and took them to the police station for questioning. Later the squad car was checked and under a seat, police found two necklaces which had been removed from Zimmerman's home.

Also found in the car was a screwdriver was found in possession of one of the youths. It is believed the screwdriver was used to pry open a window to gain entry to the house.

A motel employee recalled seeing Stack's auto with two persons in it on the lot about 4:30 a.m. today.

Mrs. Hall was divorced and had two children, a son, four, and Craig, five. Stack is separated and in the process of divorce proceedings.

Some weather impact on production of food

Weather effects of freeze and drought on food production will make a mixed bag for the consumer at the checkout counter in the next few months.

Concerned about the freeze-drought problem and its impact on farmers and consumers, the Illinois Farm Bureau has just completed a summary look at food prices in the months to come.

Besides weather problems, families are likely to feel the continuing effects of food price increases that come after the food leaves the farm, with labor, energy, transportation and retailing costs continuing to climb.

Here's how the food situation seems to shape up: —Beef prices will go up later in the year, mostly because of a cutback in beef production that already has been taking place. The severe winter coupled with drought-reduced forage supplies may force a larger movement of cattle to slaughter or to feedlots. If dry conditions persist, herd cutbacks will accelerate, increasing the beef supply on a short-term basis but considerably reducing the supply later on.

—Larger pork and poultry supplies will give consumers a beef alternative and this will lead to beef promotion and special pricing to move the short-term increased tonnage of beef at the supermarket.

—Pork supplies are abundant. Up to 20 per cent more in the first half of this year is expected. Larger pork supplies are seen as more than offsetting any cutback in beef output so that the first half of 1977 total red meat production is estimated at four per cent to six per cent above the record large 1976 first-half total. Pork prices should remain fairly steady.

—Fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables suffered a setback because of the freeze in the South. Wholesale sources say resulting higher prices will be short-lived and may be back to normal by mid-March or early April as new crops are harvested and packed.

Western fruit and berry crops are dependent on irrigation and reserves of water are drastically low, so prospects there hang on the moisture the area gets in spring and summer.

—For canning crops, such as sweet corn, peas, snap beans and tomatoes, the situation is different. Since most of these are so-called summer crops that are produced in the Midwest and California, the key factor will be growing condition in the months ahead. There are currently no shortages, and future supplies will depend on good weather and adequate fertilizer supplies.

—For the coming crop season in the Midwest, which supplies most of the feed grains used for future meat and poultry production, much will depend on the amount of moisture farmers get ahead of and during the growing season.

Supplies of nitrogen fertilizer, essential to corn production, will depend on how much natural gas is shunted to the gas-short Eastern U.S. If no more severe freezing weather occurs, the situation could ease for fertilizer manufacturers. But this is the time of year the fertilizer dealers lay in supplies of plant food from plants in the South. With Mississippi River traffic hampered for many weeks by ice, movement of fertilizer to storage facilities in Illinois is down.

If spring comes early and farmers want fertilizer, they may have a tough time getting all they want even if it can be manufactured. Getting it to Illinois will present some problems.

Map making is class program

The Mary Martha Sunday school class of Third Baptist Church, heard a devotional lesson taken from the book of Psalms relating to map making and journeys, given by Mrs. Laura Maples, Thursday evening.

Members met in the home of Mrs. Anna Fossick, 2707 Harvey Place, and the opening prayer was offered by Mrs. Blanche Edwards.

A donation to be sent to a girl residing at the Children's Home in Carmi, Ill., for her Easter attire, was approved by the group.

All members expressed their appreciation to the hostess for handmade gifts she provided at a holiday dinner.

A Valentine motif accented the refreshment table. Others present were Alma Garrard, class teacher and Helen Canada, Florence Simpson and Mary Wilson.

Nameoki School PTA marks Founders Day

The Nameoki School PTA observed Founder's Day, last week by honoring each of the PTA past presidents and hearing Dr. James Comer, an elementary education professor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

President Fran Kingston opened the meeting by honoring each of the past officers and presenting them with a corsage, as she announced the year of their service.

Honorees included Mrs. Dawson Wade, 1949-50; Mrs. Harold Stewart, 1952-53; Mrs. Roger Tracy, 1953-54; Eugene Monahan, 1964-67; Vincent Rogier, 1974-75; Mrs. Burdine Holtzsch, 1946-47; Donald Kopp, 1961-62; Walt Wolkmarr, 1964-65; Mrs. Louis Brusatti, 1973-74 and Mrs. Douglas Givens, 1975-76.

Vice-president Mrs. Patti Painter introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Comer said, "Come to school, attend school activities, show your children that their school is important to you. Children are curious, show that you care by answering their questions or search for the answers you don't know."

"But above all be a good model and provide the leadership your children need," he concluded.

Mrs. Kingston reminded the parents of the child abuse seminar on March 10 to be held at Nameoki School, sponsored by the Area PTA Council.

Cub Pack 46 members including Eddie Thomas, Jeff Parnell, Artie Wilkinson, and Robert Brooks presented the colors and led the pledge to the flag. As an introduction to the den's presentation, Jerry Poole, Webelos leader, explained the basic criteria for membership in scouting and its goals.

Poole and Bryan Poole, Scott Speck and Eddie Thomas demonstrated several air current phenomena they had learned while experimenting with science.

Also included on the program was a dramatization of an actual den meeting on ecology by Robert Brooks, Mike Dawson, Tim Thomas and Artie Wilkinson under the direction of Den Four leader, Mrs. Donna Brooks.

Den Five led by Mrs. Linda Harris and Mrs. Loretta Pulley made a large birthday cake and each one would light a candle to represent a segment of their pledge. Those participating were Bill Fisher, Brian Harris, Billy Hefner, Rusty Krull, Jeff Parnell, Darrell Pulley, Jay Ritchie and Mike Bryant.

The president extended a special thank you to the North High School girls who supervised the children in attendance.

The room attendance prize was won by Mrs. Mary Morgan's second grade class and the evening prize went to Mrs. Donna Bryant.

Tax benefits in home ownership

(Fourth of a series of six articles on 1976 income taxes, prepared by the Southern Chapter of the Illinois CPA Society.)

A family home provides shelter in more ways than one. It protects us not only from the elements but also from the tax collector.

It's almost a rule of thumb that when you buy a home of your own you give up the standard deduction; the deductions brought by the house usually make itemizing so much more profitable.

While it's true that the Tax Reform Act of 1976 tightened up on some of the tax benefits of home ownership—notably deduction of the cost of maintaining an office in the home—there are still plenty of "goodies" left.

J. Darrell Burton, president of the Southern Chapter of the Illinois CPA Society, says that the chief of these continues to be the deductions for real estate taxes and for interest paid on the mortgage. Those were not affected by the Tax Reform Act.

Regarding the squeeze on offices-in-the-home, Congress merely put the official stamp on a policy toward which the Internal Revenue Service and the courts have been moving for several years.

As the law stands now, for an employee to get an office-in-the-home deduction, the space used for that purpose must be used for no other. And the maintenance of a workroom at home must be solely for the employer's convenience, not the taxpayer's.

In the opinion of many tax experts, for employees this deduction is virtually eliminated.

If you operate a business or profession out of your home, that's another story. For you, the deduction is still very much alive, although in determining what portion of household maintenance and depreciation costs can be attributed to the business you'll have to be more discriminating.

A room used part of the time for personal purposes now must be excluded.

Use of a separate structure on your property will make it easier to establish that the space is reserved strictly for business.

However, when it comes to the storage of inventory, the space may be used for non-business purposes part of the time, with the costs of maintaining it pro-rated between business and non-business usage. That applies only if the home is the sole fixed location for the business.

Business use of the home aside, what other benefits does the structure provide?

One is a deduction for the cost of any improvements you make for the benefit of an elderly or handicapped person who lives with you—a ramp for the passage of a wheelchair, for example.

Also, capital expenditures for medical purposes—such as an air-conditioning system for an asthmatic, or an elevator for a cardiac patient—may be deductible as a medical expense. Any value the improvement may add to your house, though, must be excluded from this deduction.

If you changed your place of residence in 1976 because of a change in your place of employment, you may be allowed to deduct many of the costs connected with the move: not only the moving van, but up to a thousand dollars of pre-move househunting and temporary living expenses—and as much as $2,500 for certain costs incurred in selling the old place and buying or renting the new one.

Also, the move must have been at least 50 miles.

If you are the fortunate owner of a second home—a vacation cottage which you rent out part of the time, let's say—there are new rules here, too, and they apply to 1976 tax returns.

You can now deduct expenses connected with the rental only to the extent that gross rental income exceeds the deductions you would be able to take even if the house weren't rented.

For example, if your rental income is $800, your taxes and interest costs are $300, and other expenses such as heating, maintenance and depreciation are $1,000, you are allowed to deduct only the $300 of interest and taxes plus $200 of the other expenses.

The only way to deduct all the expenses is by using the house yourself no more than 14 days during the year or ten per cent of the time it is rented out, whichever is greater.

That makes it an ordinary business investment, qualifying for the usual business deductions.

A warning here, though. The cottage must earn a profit at least two years out of every five or the IRS may decide it's a hobby rather than a true investment.

The Illinois CPA Society recommends taking full advantage of the tax benefits ownership of a home can provide.

North 2nd, South 3rd; 4 Warriors, 4 Steelers going to state

"I knew we had it in the bag after winning at 155 pounds," exclaimed Cahokia mat mentor Larry Taylor when his Comanche wrestling team captured the 1977 Illinois High School Association sectional tournament in the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium Saturday night.

Taylor and six Cahokia wrestlers will pack their bags for Champaign with the momentum gained when Cahokia tallied 126½ points and advanced five weight class champions and one runnerup during the weekend.

Coach Walt Whitaker's GCHS North Steelers took second place with 95 points, and Coach William Schmitt's GCHS South Warriors were third with 72½. Finishing in order behind the top three schools were Roxana 59½ points, Quincy 54, Belleville East 51½, Belleville West 39, Lincoln Ill. 31, Mascoutah 24, Alton 20½, Edwardsville 15, East St. Louis 14½, Hillsboro 14½, Carbondale nine, Murphysboro eight, Centralia seven and Wood River five.

Six teams scored two points each. They were Springfield Lanphier, Belleville Althoff, Collinsville, Springfield High, West Frankfort and Springfield Southeast.

With individual champions and runners-up earning the right to compete this Friday and Saturday in the state meet at the University of Illinois in Champaign, Granite City will be represented by eight wrestlers — four each from North High and South High.

Placing in each weight class were:

98-pounds — Khris Whelan (GC North) champion, Tim Check (Lincoln) second, Dave Harris (Belleville West) third; 105 — Wally DeShon (GC South) champion, Ken Watts (East St. Louis) second, Brian Horvath (Edwardsville) third.

112 — Lee Polle (Cahokia) champion, Keith Whelan (GC North) second, Ken Elmore (Quincy) third; 119 — Steve Koch (Belleville East) champion, Mike Lorentzen (Cahokia) second, Mike Vorhees (Roxana) third.

126 — Tom Janick (Belleville West) champion, Matt McCullough (GC North) second, Bill Kepner (Quincy) third; 132 — Dave Gaines (GC South) champion, Clay Brueggeman (Roxana) second, Kevin Traff (Mascoutah) third.

138 — Rich Touchette (Cahokia) champion, Glen Eton (Roxana) second, Larry Larson (Lincoln) third; 145 — Stan Dickerson (Belleville East) champion, James Carmody (GC South) second, Marty Garke (Quincy) third.

155 — James Cruise (Cahokia) champion, Bill Spencer (Roxana) second, Steve Hartline (GC North) third; 167 — Herman Jackson (Cahokia) champion, Mark Widel (GC North) second, Steve Failer (Quincy) third.

185 — Gerold Herren (Alton) champion, Kevin Wilson (GC South) second, Doug Harris (Belleville East) third, and heavyweight — Mark Feldman (Cahokia) champion, Bob Brand (Mascoutah) second, and Bob Boss (Hillsboro) third.

In receiving congratulations for his team's first sectional victory, Coach Taylor said, "I wasn't about to accept it until we won at 155."

"One year we were ahead by 20 team points and Coach Schmitt walked up, shook my hand and congratulated me."

"His matmen then swept the upper weight classes and South beat us."

Khris Whelan enters the state tournament as the lone undefeated Granite City wrestler (33-0). He swept through his weight class, winning a 15-5 and 7-1 decisions, by default and on a pin in 4:43.

Keith Whelan of North won 9-0 and 4-2 and lost 4-2 in overtime; McCullough won 1:14 and 3-0 and lost 4:29; Widel won 4:12, lost 11-7, won 16-1 and 3-22.

For GCHS South, DeShon won 7-2, 6-4 and 1-0; Gaines won 3:56, 2-1 and 4-2; Carmody won 3:16 and 2-1 and lost 3-1; Wilson won 14-3 and 7-2 and lost 8-4.

Three other Warriors participated: 112 — Barry Forshee lost 2-1; 138 — Darrell Hasty lost 5-3; and heavyweight — Mark Naglich won 4-29, lost 10-5 in overtime and lost 4-14.

For North, 145 — Ray Stuart lost 6-5, won 3-0 and lost 3-7; 155 — Steve Hartline won 15-2, won 2-0 and lost 10-6 and 10-6; and heavyweight — James Shemwell won 3-06, lost 3:39 and lost 3-0.

Professional athletes immortalized by artist

Mention the name Ravanelli to Quad-City area residents and most always it brings to mind Ravanelli's Restaurant in the American Village Shopping Center.

But to members of the St. Louis baseball Cardinals, the name means artistic perfection. The local restaurant not only caters to area persons but also to such nationally-prominent sports personalities as Hector Cruz, Pete Falcone, Keith Hernandez and Lou Brock, plus Hall of Fame Jim Ottis of the football Cardinals.

Athletes strolling through the firm's doors are greeted with large framed pictures of themselves hanging on the walls, with the artist's signature affixed — Terry Ravanelli.

The sketches are correct in every detail, from the No. 25 on Hector Cruz's uniform shirt to the flexing of muscles in his right arm as he swings a bat.

The Cardinal outfielder is captured by Ravanelli with his right foot dug into the dirt at the plate and his left foot behind him slightly in the air as Cruz puts body-power into the swing. His teammates watch from the dugout and fans watch from the stands.

Ravanelli, 19, employed as a cook in the family restaurant, does not utilize a camera to capture a player's profile, but spends two to three months with charcoal and carbon pencil — sketching subjects who pass by proxy in an original photograph.

Upon completion of a sketch, the athlete is then invited to the restaurant to autograph the picture before it takes its place on the wall for public viewing.

A graduate of GCHS South and now an art major at Florissant Valley Community College, St. Louis, Ravanelli says he was inspired with the idea while visiting a cousin in Abilene, Texas.

Cousin Gary McCaleb is a restaurant in Abilene and adorning the walls of the foyer in his restaurant are such dignitaries as former President Gerald Ford, President Jimmy Carter and former California Governor Ronald Reagan, all products of McCaleb's artistic hand.

Such sports figures as Mickey Mantle, Harlem Globetrotter Marquis Haynes and home run king Henry "Hank" Aaron also are shown after being captured in every detail.

"I'm waiting for Lou Brock to set a new major league record of most lifetime stolen bases before doing his portrait," the Granite City adds.

Brock is the current record-holder for most stolen bases in a single season with 118, set in 1974.

"I will personally present the drawing to Brock after he accomplishes the career base stealing record from Ty Cobb this season," Ravanelli relates.

SPORTS-MINDED ARTIST. Players of the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals are currently the subject of sketches drawn by Terry Ravanelli (left), 19, of Granite City. The art works are displayed on walls of Ravanelli's Restaurant. His work has attracted many National League players to Granite City, including Pete Falcone (center), pitcher, and Keith Hernandez (far right), a slugging Cardinal first baseman. The framed charcoal and carbon pencil sketch being held by Ravanelli is of Hector Cruz, while Hernandez holds a sketch of himself in action.

Bruce Jateff will attend Illinois State

The state's leading high school ground gainer, Jeff Hardgrove of Streator, and Granite City's Bruce Jateff are among 19 incoming freshman football players to sign national letters of intent with Illinois State University, it was announced during the weekend by Coach Charlie Crowder at Normal-Bloomington.

Hardgrove gained 1,709 yards last fall while winning all-state honors. It was believed to be the highest rushing output among the state's large schools.

Crowder's staff recruited two quarterbacks, 6-1 Willie Boyd of Chicago South Shore and 6-3 Don McInturf of Blue Island East.

Running backs include Bruce Brown of Champaign Central, Hardgrove, Eric Tapley of Chicago Harper, Stan Hawkins of Lincoln, Jateff of Granite City North, Tony Scott of Rock Island and Curtis Wideman of Evanston. Hawkins ran the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds as a junior, and the group as a whole has excellent speed, the coach says.

Andy Hightower, a swift split end from Alton, is another offensive threat.

Interior linemen, all ranging from 6-2 to 6-5 in height, are Jim Gadsby, Champaign Central; Dave Goulding, Lockport Central; Mike Hale, Dundee; Dave Little, Belvidere; and John McFarland, Lockport.

New Surgical Appliances Center opens

Concert by boys' chorus

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Mon., Feb. 21, 1977 Page 12

Private sound-proof fitting rooms and certified surgical appliance technicians, under the supervision of a registered pharmacist, are two of the services offered at the new Reese Surgical Appliances and Convalescent Aids Center, 2120 Madison Ave.

Unique to the Quad-City area, the center is located in the "old" wing at St. Elizabeth Hospital, which formerly housed the emergency room and related facilities. Entrance to the center is gained through the former emergency-ambulance service door on 20th Street.

Hours of operation are from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday. Appointments may be made by calling 877-5032.

In announcing the opening of the new center, John W. Reese, president of Reese Drugs, said the facility also includes an expanded pharmacy area.

The firm has closed its pharmacy in the Tri-Cor Medical Building and moved to larger quarters, adjacent to the surgical appliances center.

"We are offering the best line of scientifically and anatomically correct appliances and a complete prosthetic service," Reese said.

"Our primary function is service to our patients. We do not simply sell appliances. We fit the right appliance correctly to your doctor's prescription," the company president stressed.

The Certified Surgical Appliance technicians employed at the new facility are graduates of the Surgical REESE SURGICAL APPLIANCES and Convalescent Aids Center, which opened last week in the Community Medical Arts Building, 2120 Madison Ave., offers the service of its kind in the Quad-City area. The new center is located in the former emergency room section at St. Elizabeth Hospital. In the photograph are Aaron Adams, center manager, and Mrs. Debbie Boyer, his assistant. Both Reese employees received training in the fitting and application of surgical supports and related items at the OTC Surgical Supply School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Appliance Fitting School, conducted by the OTC Division of Surgical Appliance Industries, Inc., in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The school was conducted by Dr. C. Richard Schroeder, M.D., director of the OTC Professional Appliances.

Information and instruction received by the technicians is considered the latest obtainable in anatomy and the selection and application of surgical appliances and breast prostheses, Reese said.

Relating to the breast cancer patient, the center provides a complete service for fitting the post-mastectomy patient, including a trained woman fitter and the finest prostheses and brassieres available today, the company officer advised.

Reese's new Surgical Appliances and Convalescent Aids Center and Pharmacy is being managed by Aaron Adams, a 1963 graduate of the St. Louis College of Pharmacy.

Adams has been with Reese Drugs since 1969 and for the past three years was manager of Tri-Cor Pharmacy.

Assisting Adams in the operation of the convalescent aids and surgical supply department will be Mrs. Debbie Boyer, a resident of Granite City.

Both Adams and Mrs. Boyer have graduated from the Cincinnati school.

Also available at the center on a purchase or rental basis are wheelchairs, beds, walkers, commodes and similar convalescent aids.

Supports for every condition and surgical and orthopedic garments, prostheses, braces, traction equipment, crutches and canes, likewise are offered.

"We provide the home convalescent, the elderly and the handicapped a full line of quality products, and a complete fitting service is rendered on all items we furnish," Reese emphasized.

Ample parking is available near the center.

Renaisance to rock music will be performed by the Newark Boys Chorus in concert at SIUE Wednesday at 8:15 p.m.

The 32 boys in the concert chorus from the Newark Boys Chorus School in New Jersey range in age from nine to 14.

Members are black, white and Hispanic, and come from different economic backgrounds. Some have had music in their homes, and others were first introduced to music in the Chorus School, a private school for chorus members and trainees.

Their training is rigorous. Besides school work they rehearse three hours a day outside concert commitments.

During December alone the boys sang 28 concerts plus television tapings. The chorus always sings from memory and, so far this school year, has memorized several full concert programs amounting to over four hours of continuous singing. The boys are continually adding to their repertoire.

Tickets for the performance in Meridian Hall of the University Center are $2.50 for non-SIU students and $1 for students.

End parking at 21st - Delmar

Persons who have been using the vacant lot at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue (former site of Central School) for parking will not be able to use that area after Sunday, Nelson Hagauer, supervisor of Granite City Township, noted today.

S.M. Wilson Construction Co. will begin to move heavy equipment onto the lot Monday, Feb. 28, in preparation for a March 1 groundbreaking.

A Granite City Township hall is to be constructed on the site with construction beginning immediately after the groundbreaking.

"We regret this inconvenience to those who use this area for parking and hope they will be able to find suitable parking elsewhere," Hagauer said, adding, "We are happy we have been able to make this vacant lot available to help ease the downtown parking problems since Central School was demolished."

Art Carney skilled actor and comedian

By DON FREEMAN

Press-Record

Hollywood Bureau

Over the last two decades, give or take a year, Art Carney has won acclaim (including an Oscar among other honors) as a distinguished dramatic actor and also as the lean half of television's premier comedy team. The team of Gleason and Carney, of course.

This is a rare distinction that marks him apart from the performers of his time.

It would have been approximated, in fact, only if Stan Laurel had periodically left Babe Hardy to enact serious roles. Or if Lou Costello, perhaps, had played Hamlet.

Art Carney appreciates the foregoing sentiments but he wonders if the praise doesn't embrace a slight inaccuracy.

"We were believable in what we did, Jackie Gleason and me," Carney says.

"He was Ralph Kramden, the bus driver, and I was Ed Norton, the guy down in the sewer, and people accepted us that way, in 'The Honeymooners'."

"People just didn't think we were acting. I don't know what they thought we were doing but they just never thought of it as acting."

Well, of course. Going for laughs is a serious business and Carney, in all those years with Gleason, was shoring up one side of the actor's craft.

The other side of his actor's skill—the flip side of the same coin—he exhibited to raves on Broadway, for instance, in "The Rope Dancers."

He did it as well in "Harry and Tonto," the movie that won him an Academy Award, and in a number of well-remembered TV dramas.

Presumably, both elements of the Carney style will be on display in a starring role in a new NBC series that is a blend of comedy and drama.

It's called "Lanigan's Ranch." Carney does not play the rabbi.

Lanigan is an Irish cop and Carney has the right look and background for the role.

See plain, Art Carney is a far remove, however, from the classic extrovert he played in "The Honeymooners," the jauntily arm-waving sewer worker.

He carries a touch of a paunch now, the white hair is sparse and he's been testing his new hearing aid.

And he really doesn't care much for interviews, which is why you rarely see Art Carney on the talk shows.

"No offense," Art says, "but I'm much more comfortable when I'm playing someone else. When I'm myself, that's the problem and it's always been that way."

"Even when I was a kid, until I started doing impressions. 'I'd do FDR at the Elks Club and I'd bust out of my shell—and then afterward I'd be shy Art Carney again.'"

"Cagney is like that, too," Art said. "It's just about impossible to get Jimmy Cagney out of the house and I'm not too social, either."

Carney is fond of Cagney but Fred Allen was his idol.

"From Fred Allen," he says, "I learned about timing. From Fred Allen, I learned how to observe people."

ART CARNEY

And what did he learn from working with Jackie Gleason?

"More about timing," Carney said, "and more about how to observe people."

"Jackie brought things out of me. He gave me free rein. He trusted me."

"He knew I wasn't after his job. He was very generous, professionally and financially. He really is The Greatest."

"Whatever I've done in this business," said Art Carney, "I've done from instinct and from watching other people and learning."

"I'm very Irish, which means I've got sentiment and humor. But I'm a very private guy."

"I've always got to have a character to play. I could never, ever, go out there and be Art Carney."

"I always know the character I'm playing. But I'm not sure, really, who Art Carney is."

Real estate fees negotiable

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott last week announced settlement of a civil antitrust suit against nine Crystal Lake real estate brokers that will permit sellers of real estate to negotiate commission rates rather than be charged fixed rates by the brokers. The nine brokers are members of Associated Listing Service.

Scott said the settlement provides that the brokers advertise the fact that commission rates are "negotiable between each ALS member and its client." The ALS also agreed to pay $20,000 as a civil penalty and to amend its bylaws so they are not unreasonable or discriminatory against brokers who are not members of ALS.

The nine also are enjoined from entering into any future combinations in restraint of trade and are required to file semi-annual reports with the attorney general's office.

Scott pointed out that this is the second suit his office has brought successfully against real estate brokers for fixing commission rates. The first, brought July 1, 1971, resulted in a consent decree in which 17 major real estate firms in "Northwest suburban communities of Chicago were enjoined."

Scott commented, "Real estate brokers throughout the state should be aware that fixed brokerage rates are in violation of the Illinois Antitrust Act and will be challenged."

IT TAKES COURAGE . . .

One of the most difficult things for people to do is change super markets. It was made evident to us last week when once again we saw a lot of "new faces" in both stores.

We enjoy talking and listening to our customers and one of the things we heard over and over was "we've been meaning to come to Schermer's for some time but just didn't get around to it."

So, it would seem that for some unknown reason, many people are afraid to switch super markets. Even people who shop in "bad stores," and there are "bad stores," afraid to switch for fear the next one could be "worse."

At Schermer's you have nothing to "fear." Shopping is a pleasant experience — the prices are "right" — and you're dealing with people who not only care about you — but work to help make this community a better place to live. Won't you give us a try?

Post offices here join area processing system

The Granite City, Madison and Venice Post Offices have become part of the Area Mail Processing Program of the U.S. Postal Service on a phased-in basis, it was announced today by Postmasters Herbert Backs of Granite City, William Clinton of Madison, and William Singleton of Venice.

"This modern mail-processing program, which began on a national basis in 1970, is intended to gain maximum efficiency through the use of the mechanized 'AMP' facility at St. Louis, they said.

"The St. Louis postal facility now will handle processing functions for a total of 251 area post offices, including our offices," it was noted.

"The AMP is a plan whereby mail originating at post offices within a given area is consolidated for processing at a major nearby facility, including complete preparation of mail for outgoing dispatch.

This centralized processing of mail for a wide area is more efficient, and helps to maintain the quality of service, they said.

However, provisions are made for continuance of the local postmark in all area offices.

All mail deposited in a HOUSE RANSACKED

Angelo Jones, 210 Seb St., Venice, reported to police at 11 p.m. Sunday that thieves forced his front door open and ransacked the house, taking a Bradford turntable and a watch.

receptable at the post office which is designated for the deposit of mail for local postmark only, will be cancelled with the postmark of the local post office.

All mail deposited into street letter boxes not designated for local delivery, or into the "out-of-town" letter drops at the participating post offices will be sent to the St. Louis Area Mail Processing Center for processing. This mail will bear the Mail Processing Center postmark, which is St. Louis, Mo. 631, along with a date and time designation.

The postmasters urged that customers no longer use the word "city" on mail addressed for local delivery, but to spell out the name of the city and use the correct zip code.

They emphasized that because of the high degree of mechanization at the AMP Center facility, the use of zip code on all mail becomes extremely important.

"This program has been successful all over the country for six years. In some cases, there has been a misconception that the local postmark is 'lost' in the process, but they want to make it clear that this is not true, as evidenced by the provisions we are making for local postmarking where desired," they said.

All mail that is imprinted with postage meter postage must be tied or banded in bundles, boxed or otherwise packaged if there are five or more letter type pieces. Addresses must face in one direction.

Energy conservation to be topic of school workshop

The Madison School Board will assign at least three persons to attend a workshop on energy law and procedures for school elections, which will be held throughout the area on April 9, 10 and 11.

Supdt. of Schools John Palchiff said the workshop at SIUE is one of several to be sponsored by the Illinois Office of Education to discuss curriculum additions on energy conservation due to the nationwide energy problem.

The board also received a notice from the Belleville Area College board of trustees noting that the BAC board will hold its March regular meeting at the board offices of the Granite City School District. The letter invited school board members and administrators to attend the session.

The board also received a request from the Madison Federation of Teachers asking that a meeting be set to begin discussions of the new working agreement for the 1977-78 school year.

Palchiff said a meeting will be set soon.

A workshop to outline election law and procedures for school elections, which will be held throughout the area on April 9, 10 and 11, will be held at Belleville Area College, the board was told. The workshop will be one of a series planned by the Illinois State Board of Elections to acquaint school administrators with election regulations.

In a related action, the board was informed that the final date for casting an absentee ballot in person in this year's school election will be permitted on Thursday, April 17. The State Board of Elections told board members that the date will be permitted this year because the usual deadline for absentee voting on the day before the election (April 8) falls this year on Good Friday, which is a school holiday.

Reluctant members of the Association of School Boards has provided a supply of booklets entitled "Your School Board and You," which will be distributed to persons who file as candidates for election to the board this year. The 16-page booklet contains information concerning School Board operations and activities, the makeup of a school board, membership duties and other pertinent data.

Plans were approved for a basketball game at the high school gymnasium on the night of March 24 in which senior letter students will play the men's faculty. The game will be a benefit program for the March of Dimes campaign conducted by the Madison Junior Service Club.

The board approved the purchase of a meat grinder for the cafeteria from the Peierls Co. of St. Louis for a low bid of $341. Three other bids were received.

Plans also were approved to conduct a metric workshop May 4 at the high school auditorium for board members and administrators. School will be dismissed at 2 p.m. on that day. SIUE instructors will conduct the workshop.

Schools review funding

The State Board of Education is soliciting comments on state-mandated and optional education programs from local school districts.

The board is responding to Gov. James Thompson's announcement that he is budgeting a $75 million increase in funds for elementary, secondary and vocational education in 1977-78, rather than the $25 million increase the board has requested.

The state board's budget request is based on full funding of all state-mandated programs that have required spending levels.

In a letter mailed to school board presidents Thursday, informing them of the governor's announcement, Jack Witkowski said, "The board will continue to press for its budget of $148,000,000, but we recognize the possibility of a substantial shortfall."

He noted that when the board adopted the budget, it was aware of state financial problems. The governor's message is being relayed to school boards to provide them with time to allow for the contingency of the governor's budget figure prevailing, he added.

All 78 superintendents of educational service regions are being asked to hold meetings for school boards and educators, asking for recommendations.

The state board this month voted to propose 14 separate bills to the Illinois legislature in coming sessions to change statutory requirements for education in some major and minor ways.

Among the bills are proposals that would affect the method of payment of state aid to schools, changing out according to the "full-funding" formula in equal amounts for nearly all monthly payments and adjusting the last month or two downward if appropriations are not sufficient to meet the formula; limit reimbursement for summer school programs to those for severely and profoundly handicapped children.

Also eliminate some state aid programs (tax equivalent grants and impact aid), and eliminate conflicts in job-sharing which do not have to use all of their levy for fire prevention and environmental purposes.

Other proposals would consolidate state board reports; change contract authority for gifted education centers; change reimbursement schedules or rates for orphanage claims, adult education and special education; eliminate conflicts in laws regarding vacancies in offices of regional superintendents, provide equitable funding of supervisory expenses of those offices, and establish regional model programs.

David G. Tanner, 21, of 1218 Granite Ave., and Fred H. Tanner, 28, of 1232 Edwardsville Rd., were arrested by Granite City authorities and each was charged with disorderly conduct, criminal damage to property and resisting arrest following an incident at 8:35 p.m. Saturday at Pizza Hut, 1533 Johnson Road.

Police investigating a report at the restaurant that two men were sitting at a table shouting at other customers said that both men were asked to pay for their meals and leave the premises.

"The two went to a counter and while there allegedly again became abusive to customers," Fred Tanner was requested to go outside by one of the policemen who then allegedly was grabbed by the throat and had to use force to subdue Tanner.

On the meantime, David Tanner allegedly jumped upon the officer's back and began hitting the policeman. Both men were finally subdued and handcuffed.

Some tables and chairs inside the restaurant were damaged during the melee.

Planting tradition—Washington birthday

By CHRIS DOLL, Area Gardening Advisor

The winter of 1967-77 will be remembered for the snow and cold. For gardeners, it was a time to reflect on past accomplishments and plan for the future.

The weather has had no effect on vegetable gardens, but has caused concern to fruit gardeners.

The extremely low temperature in mid-January dried the fruit buds of some peach, apricot, cherry and plum trees, plus damaging wood tissue in some blueberry and blackberry plantings. The extent of this damage won't be known until it thaws out completely.

Rabbits had a tough time during the snow and found many fruit plants as their main food source.

Where feeding and scarring of tree trunks and branches has occurred, get out and paint the injured area. Others will sprout out below the damaged area and can be re-trained into a new tree.

Vegetable growers haven't been able to do much during the cold, rain, ice and snow except read and plan for the spring. But with Washington's birthday this week, some eager gardeners will find a way to sow seeds in the garden, peas and other cool season crops.

There's no magic to planting on Washington's birthday except that it's early. But if there are bad weather and poor soil conditions, there isn't anything to lose by waiting for better weather and good soil conditions.

As the month of February progresses, it's time to ready yourself and your tools for pruning. Wait for decent weather to prune so that due consideration can be given to the cuts to be made.

Dormant sprays are advisable for most tree fruits and shrubs. Be applied before leaves come out. The oil sprays that are recommended are supposed to suffocate overwintering insects but do not control diseases.

Disease control is needed on peaches and plums and is gained by using ferban or zinc sprays. Either type of spray should be applied on a warm calm day and when it won't freeze for 24 hours. There should be a six-week period to look for this type of a day.

Indoor gardeners should seed broccoli, brussel sprouts, cabbage and cauliflower now, if they are going to raise plants. It usually takes five to seven weeks for plants to reach transplanting size, and late March or early April would be about right for planting.

It's a little early to start tomatoes, so wait until around March 1.

Spindly seedlings from indoor sowing are the result of improper light and temperature conditions.

For the cabbage family, daytime temperatures should be 60-70 degrees nighttime temperatures should drop to 50 degrees.

Adequate light from the sun and fluorescent lights should be provided for 16 hours a day. Exceptions to these requirements will result in the thin, weak plants.

Arrest man in holdup at station

Thad Harrell, 32, Alton, was arrested at 5:25 a.m. Friday and was charged with an armed robbery just four hours earlier at the Clark Service station, 20th Street and Madison Avenue.

An attendant at the station said two men in a car drove onto the service station lot and stopped at a pump. The driver said, "Four dollars regular and a quart of oil," then changed his mind and said, "Make it $5."

The attendant put the gasoline in the car and brought the quart of oil to the driver who reached into his right rear pocket and displayed a handgun, pointing it at the attendant's face.

The robber said simply, "Die!" and drove out of the lot and west on 20th Street.

A description of the car was telephoned to police and radioed to all squad cars and moments later, police reported a car fitting the description had been delayed by a train and was stopped on a parking lot at 19th and Benton streets.

Two police officers backed by the car and officers aimed a spotlight, a revolver and a riot gun at the two men in the car, ordering them out.

"The men got out, put their hands on the top of their car and after three more police officers arrived, the men were searched and handcuffed."

The auto was searched and police alleged finding a .38 caliber revolver with "side kick" etched on the barrel under the driver's seat. The two men in the car were taken to the Clark station where the attendant allegedly identified Harrell as the robber.

The gun was checked in the computer network and information was received alleging the gun had been stolen in Marietta, Ga.

Harrell also was charged with unlawful use of a weapon.

The passenger in the car, Clifford B. Williams, of 1101 Logan St., Venice, was held on warrants from Sangamon County, where he was charged with lane usage and driving while intoxicated.

Elmore, a graduate of Granite City High School South, has been in the infantry nine months.

According to Gilbert Brower Jr., command sergeant-major of the First Battalion, the selection is made on appearance, discipline, military knowledge including details of the war, current events, and a number of general military topics.

In a letter to Mrs. Elmore, the sergeant-major said, "You have a son you can justifiably be proud of. We here in the First Battalion are proud of him. He has helped us keep this unit the finest infantry battalion in the United States Army."

Man hurt in tavern

Melvin Lee, 65, of 1610 Second St., Madison, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 10:10 p.m. Sunday with a laceration to the nose and a swollen face.

Lee allegedly was beaten and bruised by a man who was in the floor bleeding around the nose inside the Fourth Street Tavern, 404 Fourth St., Madison, according to police.

Milton Earl Kress, 36, of 701 Madison Ave., Madison, was released on a $25 cash bail on a charge of battery in connection with the incident.

Two GC men get prison terms

Danny Farley, 32, of 2712 Denver St., and William L. "Bully" Jones, 21, of 2033 rear Madison Ave., have been sentenced by Madison County Circuit Judge William Beatty to prison terms after both pleaded guilty to aggravated battery.

Judge Beatty ordered Jones to serve from two to six years in prison and Farley from one to three years.

The two men were charged with an incident Oct. 10, at Good Neighbor Joe's Tavern, 919 Niedringhaus Ave., during which the owner, Joe Ray, allegedly was cut repeatedly with a straight razor, and a woman and another man were injured.

Farley was charged with a $105 tape player and a case containing about 30 tapes and valued at about $135 were stolen from the van of Mark Giltner, St. Louis, parked near Risco's Lounge, 3875 Nameoki Road, between 11:30 p.m. Thursday and 1:10 a.m. Friday. ## 'Living gift' offering at midweek Lenten services

Beginning Ash Wednesday (Feb. 23), three Granite City churches again will combine forces and offer a series of six midweek worship services during the Lenten season. All are open to the public and will commence at 8 p.m.
The churches are Niedringhaus United Methodist, St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ and First United Presbyterian Church. Each church will be host for two consecutive services, starting at St. Peter's Church this Wednesday and March 2, the Rev. Robert Kettelhut, pastor, in charge; First Presbyterian, March 9 and March 16, the Rev. David Maxton, pastor; and Niedringhaus Methodist, March 23 and March 30, the Rev. Roy Baugh, pastor.

Collections taken at worship services during the Lenten series will be contributed to a special program, the ministers said.

American Indian families also receive sheep through the program.
The woolly sheep not only can provide warm clothes, extra income and nutritious meat—they also can bring progress and hope to whole communities, the Heifer Project International sponsors relate.
They explained several years ago the organization sent a plane load of Corriedale sheep to 4-H clubs in San Gabriel's isolated mountain community 8,000 feet in the Andes of Ecuador.

Today, the area has hundreds of purebred Corriedales and thousands of high-grade crossbred sheep that constantly win blue ribbons at local fairs and are considered among the finest sheep in Ecuador.

The sheep's young owners are now in school learning to be better farmers. Their parents have repaired their homes, paid debts, even realized the dream of land ownership as a result of the Heifer Project sheep.
The story of his life and his Christian testimony appeared in the denomination's official church magazine Herald of Holiness under the title "Point of Despair," Rev. Brown said.

Rev. Brown said the public is invited to attend.

REV. R. E. FORTNER

Rev. Fortner to be speaker at St. Paul's

The Rev. Robert E. Fortner, Carmi, Ill., will speak in special evangelistic services at St. Paul's Church of the Nazarene, 4300 Maryville Road, Tuesday, Feb. 22 through Sunday, Feb. 27. Weekday services are at 7 p.m. and Sunday at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.
Rev. Fortner is in full-time evangelism. He attended Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Ill., and was a businessman before accepting the call to the ministry. Many of his experiences are used as illustrations in his preaching of the gospel message, according to the Rev. Odie R. Brown, church pastor.
The story of his life and his Christian testimony appeared in the denomination's official church magazine Herald of Holiness under the title "Point of Despair," Rev. Brown said.

Madison Methodist Church adopts goal

The Madison United Methodist Church adopted a goal of $679 for the Southern Illinois Conference Pension Crusade at the February administrative board meeting.
The Rev. Dennis Price, minister of Evangelical United Methodist Church in Wood River, was the guest speaker at the morning worship service. The Rev. Ed Weston, host pastor reports.
Rev. Weston was at Wood River for a part of a conference-wide pulp exchange to strengthen the reserve pension plan and for this purpose are seeking to raise $23,000 over the next three years. This crusade will enable a more adequate support of those already retired and provide better benefits for those who will retire in future years.
March 20th has been designated as Pension Crusade Sunday, on this day United Methodist will have the opportunity to do their share for the three year goal, to raise over a million dollars, according to the Rev. Weston.

Valentine dinner at Dewey Avenue Church

A Valentine pot-luck dinner was held at Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church for the congregation last week followed by a social evening and singing.
The Rev. Eugene Beasley read scripture verses on "Love" and concluded by singing a solo entitled, "How Great Thou Art" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mary Beasley.

Church Lenten project —fight against hunger

"Most Americans want to help feed starving people overseas, but don't know how," according to the Rev. David Fielding. "We are bombarded by the cruel statistics of hunger on a daily basis, and the average person feels overwhelmed by the size of a problem like global famine."
"Yet, we have found that when we show Americans a way to relate to the problem, they help in the traditional unselfish way the United States has always responded to the needs of the less fortunate."

Rev. Fielding, pastor of Hope Lutheran Church, 3715 Wahash Ave., was commenting on the beginning of a Lenten hunger project sponsored by the "People in our congregation became interested in the projects of the Love Loaf program after a guest speaker from World Vision International presented a program last November. In the process, we learned that a majority of the world goes to bed hungry and 10,000 people die every day from starvation," he said.

Hope Lutheran members decided to help in a tangible way and to participate in a national "Love Loaf" program. Jars of coin containers, shaped like miniature loaves of bread, will be distributed to families of the church.

"These will be kept on the dinner tables," explained Rev. Fielding, "as a reminder that while we have much, others have little or nothing to eat. I think it also will be a way parents can teach their children compassion."

"As family members pray for the world's needy, they also put coins in the Love Loaf each day. Even the smallest child can participate. His penny will provide a week's supply of vitamins to someone suffering from malnutrition."

"A dime will provide someone else with a full meal. The youngsters will learn compassion as they put in their pennies and dimes and pray." Rev. Fielding said the containers will be provided for each home during Lent and then turned in on Easter Sunday. By that time, each may hold about $10 in coins.

The "Love Loaves" will be distributed to families at the Ash Wednesday Communion service this Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Additional loaves will be provided at all the services during Lent.

St. Bartholomew's Lenten Services

Following a tradition that goes back into the middle ages, the Episcopal women of St. Bartholomew's Parish will serve their annual Shrove Tuesday pancake supper from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 22, in the dining room of the church which is located at 22nd Street and Grand Avenue.

The Rev. Wilbur L. Lear, rector of St. Bartholomew's explained that in the middle ages the church did not allow the consumption of fat, butter or eggs until Lent, and on the day before Lent began (Ash Wednesday) it became the custom in England for housewives to prepare special pancakes which would use up all the eggs and butter and fat in the house thereby removing it from use during Lent.

The custom of eating pancakes on Shrove Tuesday (or Mardi Gras - Fat Tuesday) has continued even though Lenten disciplines have been relaxed in recent years. The Shrove Tuesday pancake supper will be open to the public and the cost of the dinner which will include all the pancakes you can eat plus sausage and beverage, will be $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Information is available by calling 776-0097 or 776-7345. Rev. Lear added.

Ash Wednesday, which marks the beginning of the 40 day Lenten period will be observed at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church with a service of Blessing and Imposition of Ashes and Holy Eucharist beginning at 8 a.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 23rd. The service will be repeated at 6 p.m. with ashes being given at both services.

The service of Blessing of Ashes and Holy Eucharist will also be celebrated in St. Thomas Church, Glen Carbon at 9:30 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m.

During Lent the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 8 a.m. in St. Bartholomew's Church and on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Thomas Church. On Saturdays the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 5 p.m. in St. Bartholomew's as well as at 7:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Sundays. Sunday Mass in Glen Carbon is held at 9 a.m.

A special Lenten service will be held each week at a time and place to be announced later. Pre-Lenten confessions will be heard in St. Bartholomew's Church on Shrove Tuesday evening at 6:30 or by appointment.

The testing in Pontoon Beach and in Madison was sponsored by Lions Clubs of Madison, Pontoon Beach and Granite City as part of a statewide, Lions-sponsored screening program. From left, Chester Dean, Rich McIntosh, Marjorie Reutenbach, RN, Audrey Hart, RN, Maribeth Dake, Donna McIntosh, Shirley Gaudette, Jo Ann Elmore, Joyce Hastings, Judy Kipchak and Mary Warren. ## 281 take tests at Lions glaucoma screening unit

A total of 281 persons took advantage of free tests offered last week at the Lions mobile glaucoma screening unit in Pontoon Beach and in Madison — with only one person referred to a physician for further glaucoma testing.

The screening unit was provided by the Lions of Illinois Foundation and was located during the morning at Pontoon Beach and during the afternoon at Schermer's Market parking lot in Madison.

In addition to free tests for glaucoma, testing was offered for visual acuity, diabetes and blood pressure.

"We are sure many people are relieved to find they don't have glaucoma, and we feel grateful that if any of the people referred on for further checkups do have problems, they will be able to be helped because the disease was caught in time," said Richard McIntosh, sight conservation chairman of the Pontoon Beach Lions Club.

The Madison, Pontoon Beach

and Granite City Lions Clubs co-sponsored the screening. Medical assistance for the project is provided by the University of Illinois, Department of Ophthalmology. One person was found to have elevated eye pressure and was referred to eye doctors for further testing. 51 persons had visual acuity problems and referred, four persons had abnormal sugar diabetes levels and one person had high blood pressure, according to test results.

More than 250,000 people have been tested for the disease statewide since the project began in 1969.

Local medical personnel volunteering their time to give the test in Pontoon Beach were nurses Audrey Hart and Marjorie Reutebuch, with nurses Pat Johnson, Sister Jerome and R. A. Parney helping in Madison.

Deadline for auto license plates March 1

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon is reminding Illinois motorists that 1977 license plates must be displayed on all passenger cars, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, trailers and campers by midnight Tuesday, March 1.

Dixon earlier this month extended the deadline from Feb. 15 to March 1, the latest date permitted by law. Passenger plates may be purchased over-the-counter at more than 450 banks and savings and loan associations throughout the state, 700 currency exchanges in the Chicago metropolitan area, three Motor Vehicle facilities in Chicago and two Vehicle Service facilities in Springfield.

Thumb advice from dentists

This is the fifth in a series of six articles on dental health published by the Press-Record in cooperation with the Madison District Dental Society, in observance of National Children's Dental Health Week.

"My four-year-old daughter still sucks her thumb at bedtime, and we are concerned that this habit will prove harmful to her teeth. How does the dental profession feel about this?"

Dr. Joachim O. Bauer, local orthodontist, replies: "During the child's early years, thumb sucking — which gives pleasure and emotional comfort — should be considered normal behavior. In most instances, it is relatively harmless and most children stop the habit by the time they are four or five years old."

Prolonged and intensive thumb sucking past the time when the permanent teeth are in position — at five to six years of age — can lead to real problems.

There are degrees of sucking. A light resting of the thumb between the lips at bedtime probably will not have much of an effect on the child's teeth and jaws. But heavy thumb sucking done several times a day or all night long can affect the position of the permanent teeth and the shape of the jawbone.

The family dentist should be consulted as early as possible. He is the only one who can diagnose the seriousness of your child's habit and advise you concerning ways to help her overcome it.

At this point, he may tell you not to worry about it. Scolding or punishing the child — rather than helping to eliminate the habit — may only further her anxiety and thumb sucking.

But if she should continue the habit over the next year, the dentist can suggest several methods aimed at stopping it, including: rewarding her for quitting; painting the thumb with bitter tasting lotion; bandaging the thumb; and mittens.

Another method might be a fixed or removable dental appliance to keep the thumb out of the mouth.

Special voter registration set Saturday

Four special voter registration centers will be open in the Quad-City area Saturday for non-registered residents who wish to vote in the April park, township, city and village elections.

Residents have until March 7 to register. Persons who will be 18 years old on or before April 5 who have lived 30 days continuously in their precinct are eligible to vote.

Special registration sessions will be conducted at the following locations and times Saturday.

Cohen's Foods, 2301 Illinois Ave., noon to 5 p.m.; Schermer Brothers' Market, 12th Street and Madison Avenue, Madison, noon to 6 p.m.; Adl Market, 4085 Pontoon Road, Pontoon Beach, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and the West Madison Memorial Center, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Demonstrate 2 art techniques

New art techniques — daltic plating and metal spraying — will be demonstrated to the public Thursday during a visiting artist workshop at the SIUE Department of Art and Design. Jeff Bayer, chairman of the department of art at the University of Alabama, Huntsville, will conduct the sessions in the sculpture studio of the Wagner Art Complex.

Daltic plating (9:30 a.m. demonstration) and metal spraying (1:30 p.m.) are industrial metal applying techniques with potential for the arts.

In daltic plating, a direct metal plating process, the object being plated does not have to be disassembled and placed in a tank. Metal spraying is a process that deposits a layer of metal on practically any surface, in much the same way paint is sprayed.

A WORD TO THE ENERGY-WISE ABOUT WATER

Stop a little drip and save several showers

Heating water takes a sizable part of the energy you use. That's why even a small drip can be a big waster of your water heater's output. Over a period of months, that drip adds up to the equivalent of several hot showers. Stop that drip!

Here are other ways to conserve hot water:

- don't let hot water run needlessly when you're shaving or washing.
- cold water works as well as hot for rinsing dishes and even better for operating your garbage disposer.
- use the cold water laundry methods for washing or rinsing wherever recommended.

And to make efficient use of the idle "off-peak" energy available at night, do laundry and dishwashing in the evening hours.

For more energy-conserving ideas, ask at our office.

The equity in your house is like money in your pocket.

Equity is the difference between how much your home is worth, and what you owe on it. It's a valuable asset you can use to back a really big loan. For whatever you have in mind.

Real-estate values are up, up, up.

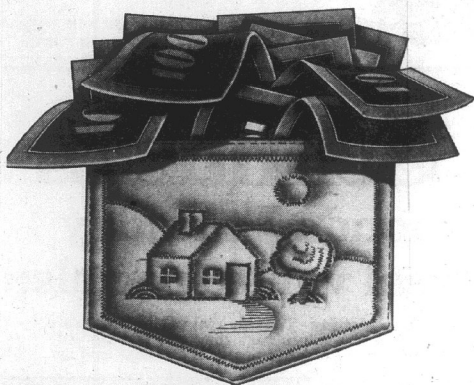

So the house you bought just a few years ago probably would sell for a lot more than you paid.

Which means your equity is bigger. And the bigger your equity, the more you can borrow in a large real-estate loan. Right here. Right now. Maybe the money you're looking for is already in the house.

Business climate II — Need to avoid New York fiscal woes

Part Two of comments by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association — Taxes paid by manufacturers in Illinois are high, when local as well as state taxes are considered. In a study by the state of Wisconsin of the taxes of 15 selected states as applied to six different hypothetical industrial corporations, Illinois averaged the highest combined state and local taxes for manufacturing corporations, due in large measure to high taxes for personal and real property.

According to a report from the U.S. Department of Commerce, Illinois ranks eighth highest in the 50 states in terms of per capita state and local taxes; in terms of the 14 largest industrial states, Illinois is the fourth highest, ranking only below New York, Massachusetts and California.

Taxes considered in the report include corporate income and property taxes as well as sales, motor vehicle and others. Total taxes on corporations in Illinois are considerably greater than the Sun Belt states that are getting most of the manufacturing jobs.

A. Corporate Income Tax — The present four percent rate in Illinois is lower than that of most other industrial states. It is reassuring to corporations that the state constitution mandates that the corporate rate may not exceed the individual rate by a ratio higher than 8 to 5. Labor leaders and some legislators are strongly advocating a constitutional amendment to permit higher corporate taxation without increasing individual rates.

B. Sales Tax — In Illinois, there are no significant exemptions from the sales tax for machinery and equipment (unless expressly designed and used for pollution control). Twenty-five states provide full or partial exemption for purchase of machinery and equipment used in industrial production processes. Illinois should consider some such type of exemption to improve its business climate.

C. Personal Property Tax — Illinois corporations continue to pay personal property taxes, which were abolished for individuals in 1970. Corporations pay roughly $500 million per year, which goes to local governments.

The state constitution mandates the General Assembly to repeal the personal property tax by 1979, and to replace it with a tax principally on corporations that will substitute for the revenue lost to local governments.

If the replacement tax selected were to be solely an additional corporate income tax (the constitution would permit this as an exception to the previously mentioned 8 to 5 limitation), it would more than double the corporate rate, making the total corporate rate at least nine per cent.

The use of an income tax as the sole substitute revenue source would also mean a substantial shifting of tax burden to manufacturing firms from other sectors of the business community.

While other states have been luring industrial jobs by repealing, or providing substantial exemptions to, their personal property taxes, the Illinois constitution requires a dollar for dollar replacement by corporations of the revenues lost when Illinois' personal property tax is repealed.

Inaccurate state revenue estimates harmful to local schools

The commentary immediately above reflects concern over a deteriorating business climate in Illinois, accompanied by loss of manufacturing jobs to other states.

The problem is dramatized by the need and desire to retain an adequate employment and tax base, on the one hand, and the mischievous craving when the state government assumes and then reneges on obligations.

It is important that the state not overspend. And when it tries to avoid overspending by only paying 89% per cent of the state aid funding formula it had communicated to school districts, systems like Granite City begin running into trouble. District Nine currently sees an Education Fund deficit of up to $2,121,000 as of June 30, 1977, and is studying issuance of tax anticipation starting in May 1977.

Immense constructive impact by Congressman Melvin Price

Quad-Cityans join in voicing best wishes to Congressman Melvin Price on the unique honor conferred on him last week — a portrait dedication. The distinction usually is accorded only upon a committee chairman's retirement.

Those honoring the 33-year Southwest Illinois congressman included President Jimmy Carter, Speaker of the House Thomas O'Neill, Defense Secretary Harold P. Brown, all five members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Admiral Hyman G.

Therefore, if the personal property tax is repealed, the General Assembly, in selecting a tax package to replace the revenue, as well as any other tax action that it may take in connection with such an important event, must keep foremost in mind the total impact of state and local taxes on manufacturers after such a changeover — and the over-riding need for keeping the business climate of Illinois competitive for manufacturers.

D. Real Property Tax — Real property taxes for industrial installations are generally high in Illinois. This is particularly true in Cook County, where, as a result of its classification of real property, assessment of industrial property is double that of residential property. Real property taxes on an industrial plant in Cook County are about one-third higher than if the same plant were located in adjacent counties.

Cities with more than 200,000 population, which are permitted by the state constitution to classify real property for purposes of taxation, should be sensitive to the total impact of all state and local taxes on industry in considering any such classification of industrial property for higher assessments.

E. Home Rule Taxes — The $3 per month per employee "head tax" imposed by Chicago upon employers is likewise imposed by employers in principle as well as in cost, and adds considerably to the business climate problems of Chicago. When manufacturers leave Chicago, as they are doing in substantial numbers, they sometimes settle out of state. Therefore, the state has a stake in such matters.

The General Assembly should exercise its constitutional power to deny such counterproductive taxes to home rule governments.

F. State Spending — Illinois state spending has doubled in six years, to the present $10 billion annual rate. Despite the increases in revenue and federal grants, the state treasury is essentially bare and there is much talk of a tax increase.

The state must learn to live within its means. The General Assembly must approach spending decisions on a basis of counterproductive taxes to home rule governments.

G. Increase in State Debt — Much of the increased Illinois spending has been with bonded funds. Prior to 1971, the voters had to approve general obligation bond proposals in a statewide referendum.

From 1950 to 1971, only $1.48 billion was authorized, half of it for pollution control. Since 1970, the General Assembly has had the right to authorize general obligation bonds. $2.4 billion has been authorized during just the first four years, 1971-1975. The bonded debt of Illinois has increased more than 500 per cent in the six years since 1970 — by well more than a billion dollars — from $331 million in 1970 to more than $2 billion in 1976.

The state has apparently abandoned its conservative borrowing practices. Such borrowing today leads to higher taxes tomorrow.

Restraint by legislators and the governor is highly in order to avoid following the path of New York and its financial troubles. Nothing is more important to the business climate of Illinois than that legislators take seriously the rising concern with fiscal responsibility.

Granite City schools have largely avoided tax warrant borrowing during the 1960s and 1970s but now may plunge into "red ink."

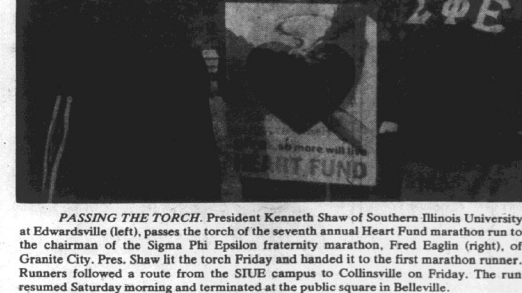

As a short-term expedient, this may be appropriate, but it is no long-term answer because tax warrants' principal, plus interest costs, must be met each new year before other disbursements are allowed.

The state had indicated a few years ago it would try to meet roughly half of elementary-secondary education costs, but it now is slipping farther and farther from that objective. At the very least, it owes local residents and taxpayers clearer and earlier exchanges of financial information with school districts, which too often have to become parties to monetary commitments without an accurate picture of future revenue.

Rickover, "father" of the nuclear submarine

As chairman of the House Armed Services Committee and former chairman of the Joint Senate-House Committee on Atomic Energy, Melvin Price has had the opportunity to advance the cause of liberty, scientific progress and military preparedness in a more substantial way than is possible for most Americans.

The state's impact on the nation throughout the post-World War II era is virtually unprecedented.

PASSING THE TORCH. President Kenneth Shaw of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville (left), passes the torch of the seventh annual Heart Fund marathon run to the chairman of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity marathon, Fred Eaglin (right), of Granite City. Pres. Shaw lit the torch Friday and handed it to the first marathon runner. Runners followed a route from the SIUE campus to Collinsville on Friday. The run resumed Saturday morning and terminated at the public square in Belleville.

Woman robbed

A youth held a knife to the throat of Edith Brown, Overland, Mo., in the parking lot of St. Joseph's church, 2101 State St., and stole her purse at 10:30 p.m. Sunday.

The victim said she was entering her auto in the church's north parking lot when a man, about 22 years old, held the knife to her throat and demanded, "Give me your purse," twice. He took the purse and ran west between two houses toward Edison Avenue, she related.

The purse contained the victim's wallet and some papers, but there was no money in it.

The robber was described as tall, weighing about 160 pounds, having shoulder-length brown hair, having a thin face and wearing a jacket to his waist.

Paper sculpture will be created

A sophisticated paper hanger will visit SIUE and create a paper sculpture in Goshen Lounge of the University Center. Peter Harvey of London, England, will be here tomorrow and Wednesday to show students and faculty how paper can be used as an art form and as a teaching tool.

Harvey, a sculptor currently working in London, has been an associate professor at Nova Scotia College of Art and Design and a lecturer at St. Martin's School of Art in London. During February, the artist is making visits to a number of university and college art departments.

On Tuesday, he will show a recently completed film at 7:15 p.m. in the ceramics studio at SIUE's Wagner art complex.

Two injured at Nameeki-Clark

Two persons were injured at 11:15 p.m. Friday when an auto driven by Kevin W. Tate of St. Louis and one driven by Robin L. Shelton, 17, of 2437 Wilson Ave., collided at Nameeki Road and Clark Avenue.

Miss Shelton underwent x-rays to her right knee after complaining of pain in that area and then released.

A passenger in her auto, David L. Macek, 17, of 2211 Bern Ave., was admitted after reporting he hit his head. He also complained of pain in his left lower back area.

Driver charged after accident

Robert D. Cunningham, 23, of 106 Briarhaven Drive, was arrested and charged with unlawful use of intoxicating compounds and with driving while under the influence of an intoxicating compound.

Police investigating a report of an auto accident at the Briarhaven Drive address said Cunningham apparently attempted to drive his auto with the emergency brake engaged and had backed into a parked auto belonging to Richard Irwin.

Authorities allege they discovered in Cunningham's car four plastic bags containing intoxicating compounds, and various paint cans.

FINAL HOME GAME FOR WOMEN CAGERS

The SIUE women's basketball team will be in action three times. The first contest of the week will be here tonight following an auto accident at Greenville. This will be the final home game of the season for the women Cagers.

Coech Lorraine Stark will then take the squad on the road to face Northeastern Illinois in Chicago on Friday and Chicago State on Saturday. The final state tournament will begin on March 4 for the women cagers.

RADIO, GLOVES STOLEN

A citizen band radio valued at $188, and leather gloves valued at $15 were taken from a truck parked at 19th and Adams Streets belonging to Vernon C. Johnson of Jennings, Mo., he reported at 10:30 p.m. Friday.

Motor fuel tax allocations

Illinois municipalities have been allotted $10,118,983 as their share of motor fuel tax paid into the state treasury during January, according to the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Motor fuel tax funds are allocated monthly to the various municipalities in Illinois for their streets and highways. The monies allocated are computed on the basis of population.

Allocations to Quad-City area communities included $43,275 to Nameeki Road, $7,298 to Madison and $4,850 to Venice.

Illinois township and road districts were allotted $3,376,000 as their share of motor fuel taxes.

The allotments included a total of $40,868 to each district in Madison County.

Total allocations to Illinois counties amounted to $2,449,940, including $142,771 to Madison County.

Man beaten

Kevin W. Robinson, 21, Harwood, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for abrasions to both knees and a nose injury which he said he sustained when he was beaten by a man at 9:30 a.m. Friday in a parking lot in the 3800 block of Nameeki Road. He was released after treatment.

Robinson told police he accepted a ride with a man while hitchhiking near I-270 and Route 159. He said they stopped at a tavern and had a drink and that as they were leaving the driver pointed a gun at him and said, "We are going to the river."

The man struck him about the face with the pistol and beat him with his fists when he told the man he was not going. Robinson then went into a supermarket and telephoned police before collapsing.

$800 to $1,000 clothing taken by shoplifters

Shoplifters stole clothing with an estimated value between $800 and $1,000 from the Leader Store, 3705 Nameeki Road, at 1 p.m. Sunday.

The manager said two black men entered and went to different areas of the store, occupying the salespersons several times. One carried an empty sack, but the sack was bulging when the men left the store together.

They got into an auto with a third black man waiting and drove from the scene. The car had Missouri license plates. Store officials checked and found a $120 man's leather jacket and about 30 to 35 pieces of baby clothing were missing.

$2,339 burglary

Items with a combined value of $2,339 were taken from Jay's Radiator and Welding Shop, 718 Niedringhaus Ave., it was reported at 9:30 a.m. Friday by the owner, Jay Hines.

Hines said when he went to his place of business Friday morning, he discovered an overhead door unlocked and a padlock lying on the floor.

Taken were an A-C-D welder, $1,400; four ratchet sets, $300; a socket and ratchet set, $75; a metric socket set, $60; and assorted hand tools, $600.

Truck looted

Several items of value were taken from a truck belonging to Leonard Bernack, 2407 Washington Ave., while parked in his driveway. He reported at 9:20 p.m. Saturday. A side window was pried open to gain entry.

Taken were a citizen band radio valued at $150, a power microphone valued at $44, a slide mount valued at $3.50, and three pocket knives with a total value of $41.

Township terms now will be uniform

For example, in 1975 with SB 1075 (which died in committee), the odd-year elections would be known as the consolidated primary election and held in March, and there would be the consolidated election in May, and a nonpartisan election in November.

Even-year elections would continue to be predominantly an election for national, state and county officers with a general election in May and the general elections in November.

Other versions of consolidation may be found in 1972 SB 1569 and 1974 SB 1161. Consolidation of elections is desirable in Illinois but, as a legislator, I want to be sure to pass the best consolidation proposal — best for the voters and taxpayers.

It has been estimated that the election laws I sponsored will save taxpayers of Madison County over $40,000 and a state of Illinois between $4 million and $5 million every four years.

took all the credit. The band played wonderfully.

Thanks to Mary Mike and his family of Madison County for attending and sharing with us and his family. I enjoyed sitting at the same table with Chris and the Madison County Democratic women's group. There are some wonderful people in the party.

Everyone wore what they pleased — formal, blue jeans, slacks and leisure suits. Everyone had a grand time. It's a shame Mitchell doesn't have more Saturdays like this — just once a month. That way, I think the new people in town would get to know the families who have lived here for a long time.

If they should get elected, I am sure they will work to make Madison County a better place to live. Let's find out how good and strong the party is. Let's show we want to make this a better town.

High school pupils to query job counselors

The Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club (BPWC) will conduct a Career Awareness Project (CAP) at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday for all students in the two local high schools.

The program will be presented at Granite City High School North. About 150 students and adults are expected to attend the session.

Each student present will be afforded an opportunity to ask questions of three career-professional representatives, Mrs. Carolyn L. Koester, CAP chairman for the local business women's group advised.

"Whether a student plans to be a farmer or a financier, this program involves people of interest to many individuals," Mrs. Koester said.

About 25 counselors representing varied professions and careers will provide information about job training, duties, employment opportunities and share their realistic job outlook with those approaching the job market, the chairman advised.

Career fields represented will include health care, education, social services, business careers, construction, the technical trades, communication, arts, agriculture and government.

The CAP program is an endeavor of the local BPWC club to join with the school and community and assist students in making educational and occupational decisions with a greater awareness of the job opportunities.

Regardless if a student is planning to continue their education after high school, or seek work immediately, the project offers valuable information, Mrs. Koester said.

Park has tickets for 'Ice Capades'

Reservations can be made, starting today, for the Granite City Park District's annual trip to the "Ice Capades," scheduled for the 6 o'clock performance Sunday evening, March 27, at the St. Louis Arena.

Starring in this year's "Ice Capades" is Dorothy Hamill, the 1976 Olympic gold medalist and world champion skater. Only 45 tickets are available for the excursion, Harold Brown, park district superintendent, advised.

Ticket cost is $5 each for adults and $4 for children through 16 years. A $2.50 fee is charged for round-trip transportation by bus to the St. Louis Arena.

Seating accommodation again has been reserved in the arena circle, which affords spectators an unobstructed view of the show, Brown said.
